

INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF APPLIED KINESIOLOGY UK

Applied Kinesiology & Nerve Entrapment: How to unscramble Hidden Problems with AK

*With Clive Lindley-Jones
B.Ed. (Hons) D.O. D.I.B.A.K.*

27-29th March 2015
Oxford Brookes University, Oxford

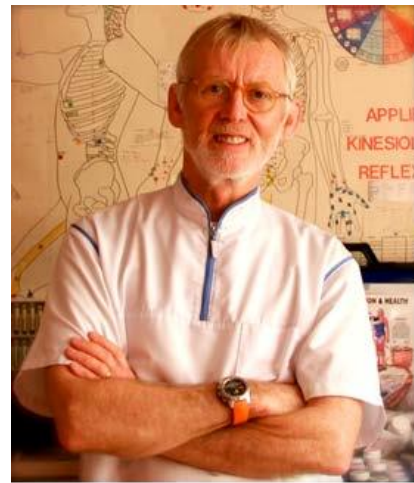

After its tours around the world in recent years, this popular and practical advanced AK course is back in the UK. Clive brings his many decades of teaching and AK to focus on these classic, but often overlooked, advanced AK tools, to unscramble, hidden, problems.

About your Lecturer:

Clive Lindley-Jones B.Ed (Hons) D.O.

D.I.B.A.K. is a registered osteopath, a qualified teacher and as well as being a long standing teaching Diplomat of the International Board of Applied Kinesiology, holds diplomas in Psychotherapy, Coaching and Neuro Linguistic Programming. He has been teaching for more than 40 years. For over 10 years he was on the faculty of the European School of Osteopathy where, amongst other things, he taught Functional Anatomy and Palpation into which he was instrumental in introducing advanced muscle testing. Active in I.C.A.K. for over 30 years, he has taught both the basic I.C.A.K. course as well as advanced courses around the world. He is the author of a number of papers on AK and orthopaedic problems published in the AK literature as well as being trainer for the Sunflower Trust using AK & NLP to help children with learning difficulties.

What others have said about the course:

“An excellent integration of a great deal of work in the AK field... Thoroughly recommended... Everyone who is serious about using AK in their practice should do this course. I wouldn't mind doing it a third time”!

Anne Mamok, DO (and she did)!

For more information on the course and details on how to book your ticket please go to our website:

<http://www.helixhouse.co.uk/Post-graduate-training>

